

AATG Nordkalifornien Frühjahrstreffen 2010 AP-Conference und AATG-Workshop

Samstag, 6. Februar 2010, 8:30-17:45 Uhr
Goethe Institut, San Francisco

8:30-12:45 AP Conference: The Successful AP® German Language Course
(with the Development Committee: Margaret Hampton, Earlham College, Richmond, Ind., Chair; Mary Ashcraft, University of Nevada, Las Vegas; Angelika Becker, Carmel High School, Ind.; Karl-Georg Federhofer, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor; Juan Carlos Morales, TERRA Environmental Research Institute, Miami, Fla.; Adam M. Levine, T.C. Williams High School, Alexandria, Va.; Johanna Watzinger-Tharp, University of Utah, Salt Lake City [Chief Reader for AP German]; Monika Kluempfen [Consultant from Educational Testing Service, Princeton, N.J.]

| | |
|-------------|--|
| 8:30–9:00 | Coffee/Breakfast |
| 9:00–9:10 | Developing the AP German Language Exam |
| 9:10–9:25 | 2009 Exam Results |
| 9:25–10:05 | Holistic Scoring and Sample Scoring of the Exam |
| 10:05–11:30 | Choosing Materials and Developing Teaching Strategies for Secondary and Postsecondary German |
| 11:30–12:00 | Designing Curriculum Around a Theme |
| 12:00–12:25 | Program News |
| 12:25–12:45 | Questions and Answers |

12:45-14:00 Mittagessen

14:00-16:00 AATG NorCal Workshop:
Developing Transcultural and Translingual Competence
in the German Classroom
Prof. Claire Kramsch, UC Berkeley

16:00-16:30 Kaffeepause

16:30-17:30 Mitgliederversammlung
Wahlen, Bericht von der AATG Presidents' Assembly, Bericht von Schatzmeister und Sekretärin, Diskussion

Dank großzügiger Unterstützung durch das Goethe Institut San Francisco und ETS entfällt dieses Jahr der Unkostenbeitrag!

Anmeldungen bitte bis 20.1. an mmiller@ets.org für den AP-Workshop und für diejenigen, die nur am Nachmittag kommen, an euba@berkeley.edu

